

DEEN'S PROFILE

Sidiq Sairu Deen serves as the Lead Consultant, Prinsult Global Consulting Limited. He is an experienced auditor/accountant with over 14 years' experience in banking. He is proficient in capacity building, mentoring, preparation of business plans, business model development, providing financial advisory services and business development ETC.

Deen holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Port Harcourt and a Master degree in Entrepreneurship & Innovation Education, University of Ibadan. His areas of expertise include: risk management, internal control, financial management, Corporate Strategy, business development, audit and compliance, entrepreneurship etc.

Deen has participated in so many business capacity training and development including Mactay Consulting/NOVA Merchant Bank Ltd Internship program, Mactay Consulting/First Bank Nigeria Plc internship training (3 months), Friend For Islamic Development One-day workshop, the Bank of Industry's annual Graduate Entrepreneurship Fund (GEF) and Youth Empowerment Scheme Program (YES-P), Mentor on Enterprise Development Centre's (EDC Lagos) Road to Growth (R2G) program, mentoring youth on Mastercard/EDC Transforming Nigeria Youth Project (TNY-P), GOPA GIZ-SEDIN and HULT Prize (An international Entrepreneurship Innovative Ideas competition amongst Universities' undergraduates).

He is a fellow, Institute of Management Consultancy (FIMC), Nigeria, an Associate Member, Nigeria Institute of management (AMNIN), an alumni of Southwest Business School, Ibadan, and Centre for Management Development (CMD), Lagos. He is a certified Business Development Service Provider (BDSP), and Fellow, French Research Institute in Africa (IFRA).